

Ted Williams League Baseball Club

For current-year TWL Spring players 11-15 years old and players younger than 11 who played in TWL Division A last year. Players may attend Sessions A, B or both. A big hit since its first year in 2011, the club builds and maintains the skills of the TWL's most devoted players by combining several of our spring training class ideas with some of our new ideas for a fresh and affordable baseball experience.

Club membership offers you multi-program packaging at discounted pricing. You do not have to be a club member to play in a TWL season or Steve Ferroli Instructional Baseball program, which remain available to you as separately priced offerings.
